

NEWS RELEASE

United States Department of Agriculture • Rural Development

101 South Main • Suite 102 • Temple, TX 76501

Phone: (254) 742-9700 • Fax: (254) 742-9709 • TDD: (254) 742-9712 • Web: <http://www.rurdev.usda.gov/tx>

Date: October 6, 2004

Contact Name: Scooter Brockett

Telephone Number: 254-742-9700

Email: Scooter.Brockett@tx.usda.gov

TX 010.05

OVER $13 MILLION IN USDA RURAL DEVELOPMENT GRANTS SELECTED TO SPUR ECONOMIC GROWTH IN 34 STATES

TEMPLE, Texas, October 13, 2004 — Agriculture Secretary Ann M. Veneman today announced the approval of 97 Value-Added Agricultural Product Market Development grants in 34 states, totaling over $13.1 million. The grants will help farmers and ranchers increase their economic opportunities through the development of new products and markets for agriculturally based products. In Texas, USDA Rural Development is awarding five grants totaling $639,191 to: Affordable Building Systems, LLC, Whitewright, Texas, Farmer's Cooperative of El Campo, El Campo, Texas, Rodney Behrens, Brady, Texas, Texas Best Organics, LLC, China, Texas and White Egrot Farm, Austin, Texas.

"The Bush Administration continues to place a high priority on creating new sources of renewable and biomass energy through such grant programs as the value-added producer grant program," said Veneman. "Creating an energy independent nation, through utilization of our nation's natural resources, is a valuable investment in America's future."

"These grants are critical to assisting America's farmers and ranchers increase markets for their commodities and to increase their profitability," said Agriculture Acting Under Secretary for Rural Development Gilbert Gonzalez. "President Bush is committed to helping more rural families live the American Dream through the creation of new business ventures that employ more rural Americans. This program is a significant investment in the future of rural families and communities."

"This grant will bring new economic opportunities and job creation for rural Texans," said Bryan Daniel, Texas State Director. "Nothing is more basic to revitalizing communities than improving their quality of life. The USDA Rural Development Value-Added Producer Grant program will help the rural residents in these areas continue to grow and thrive."

The Value-Added Producer Grant program is a highly competitive grant program that garnered nearly 400 applications. An independent review of applications is conducted to ensure that selected proposals are scored based on the criteria established in the announcement of the funding availability. Funding of selected applicants will be contingent upon meeting the conditions of the grant agreement. A complete list of the selected grant recipients can be found at the USDA Rural Development web site at: <http://www.rurdev.usda.gov>.

USDA Rural Development's mission is to deliver programs in a way that will support increasing economic opportunity and improve the quality of life of rural residents. As a venture capital entity, Rural Development provides equity and technical assistance to finance and foster growth in homeownership, business development, and critical community and technology infrastructure. Further information on rural programs is available at a local USDA Rural Development office or by visiting the web site at <http://www.rurdev.usda.gov>.

Committed to the future of rural communities.

"USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer and lender."

To file a complaint of discrimination write USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410 or call (202) 720-5964 (voice or TDD).